ILKESTON TOWN LADIES FC Club History

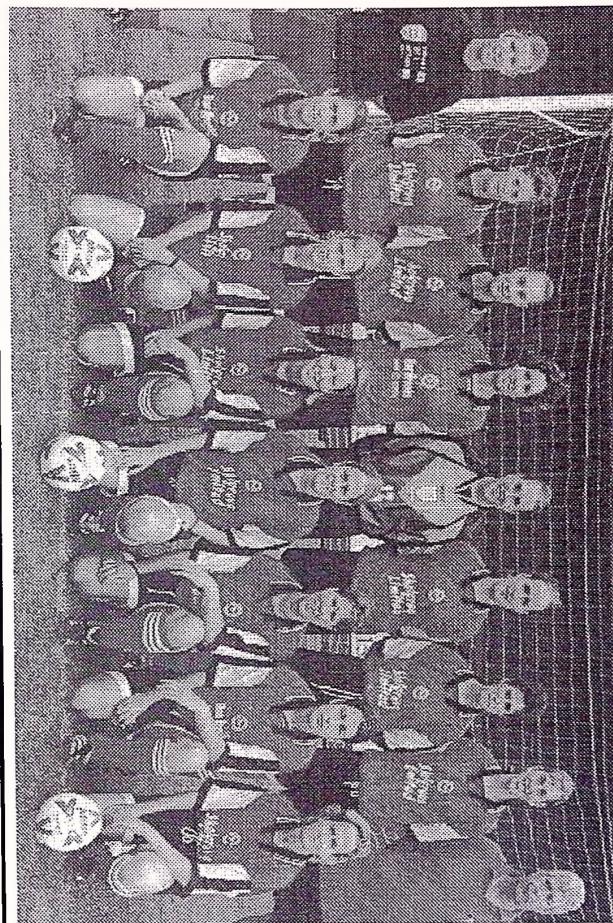

Formed in the close season of 1992/93 when Spondon Ladies and Nottingham Rangers merged to form Stanton Rangers. During the 1993/94 season Stanton Rangers won through to the Semi-Finals of the FA Cup, this game was scheduled to be played at the New Manor Ground in Ilkeston.

After the Semi-Final the board of Ilkeston Town (Men's Club) invited Stanton Rangers to move across town to become Ilkeston Town Ladies FC, which they gratefully did. Ilkeston are now in their sixth consecutive season as members of the Women's National Premier League.

Ilkeston Town Ladies were the feature of a documentary by Central TV. The programme entitled '24 Hours' followed the Clubs run through to a quarter final appearance against Arsenal.

SHEFFIELD WEDNESDAY L.F.C. –

Club History

The club was founded in 1971 at The Star Inn, Rotherham following a charity match between men and women at the pub.

Initially it took its name from the pub playing as Star Ladies.

Shortly after they joined the Sheffield Ladies League and when this league folded they moved into the Nottinghamshire League, later to the East Midlands Ladies League.

When the Football Association created the Axa FA Womens premier League, Wednesday became founder members and have continued at this top level to the present time.

The F.A. Women's Premier League Cup - Season 2000/2001

Stories from last week's Premier League Cup, 1st Round – Sunday, Sept 24th

Defending champions Arsenal eased through the second round at Sunderland. Angela Banks scored the first of her hat-trick after six minutes, but their hosts matched them for 25 minutes until Ciara Grant's header led to the Gunners stamping their authority on the game. Sarah Wooliscroft made it 3-0 on the half-hour, Banks typically taking advantage of the smallest opportunity to score again in the 54th minute. Sunderland lost impressive 'keeper Donna Harris and this led to three goals in the final ten minutes for a final score of 7-0. Banks scored her third, Lindsey Baxter conceded an own goal under pressure from Jayne Ludlow and Caroline Thorpe scored after having got the only goal for Ireland against Scotland the day before.

Charlton Athletic's League Cup tie at Newcastle Town finally saw them register their first goals and they went on to rattle in fourteen. Emma Moore scored five and Tara Procter four as the league newcomers were taught a harsh lesson.

Doncaster Belles saw off Northern Division Garswood Saints, 7-2 despite Andrea Bell equalising Becky Easton's opener within seconds. Karen Walker's penalty put Doncaster on the way to a 4-1 half-time advantage, with Mel Garside, Gail Borman, Aran Embleton, Sarah Abrahams and a second from Walker completing Belles' win.

Huddersfield Town worked hard, but couldn't stop their losing run, conceding seven at Everton. There were braces from in-form Chantel Woodhead and Kelly Shimmin, a Sammy Britton header and one each for substitutes Gail Formston and Leanne Duffy.

Tranmere Rovers also registered seven against visiting Chelsea, for whom Fara Williams scored the sole reply. Sue Smith and Kelly Burns both scored twice as Rovers led 4-0 at the break.

Millwall had already lost at home to Barry Town in the league but fought back from 2-0 down to win 3-2 after extra-time. Emma Thrower scored twice before Terri Warren (14) netted the winner.

Struggling Liverpool were offered no respite at Aston Villa, but they were reprieved as a waterlogged pitch caused a postponement.

Southampton Saints had a comfortable 5-0 win over Sheffield Wednesday, with Una Nwajei twice on target, Gemma Ritchie, Corinne Yorston and an own goal totalling the five goals.

Newport County made a lively start at Brighton but went one behind to a fierce Natalie Birch free-kick on 15 minutes. Kerry Tagg finished a five-player move before half-time to make it two, Emma Mead and Tagg's second later giving Albion a 4-0 margin.

Oldham Curzon had made an impressive start to their season but hosted a revitalised Wimbledon team who also had the weather on their side as the game was abandoned due to the continuing downpour, 15 mins from the end, with Oldham leading 2-1.

Barnet scored three in the last three minutes to send Ipswich to a 7-1 defeat, with Lia Augimeri hitting her second successive hat-trick. Michelle Allum had levelled for the visitors on the half-hour, but Barnet went on to win easily with goals by Kristy Moore, Kirsty Russell, Leanna Rolls and a Vicki Brackenberry own goal.

Leeds United defeated Ilkeston Town for a second time this season, but hit six on this occasion. Karen Skillcorn scored a hat-trick. Becky Lonergan, Lucy Ward and Lisa Woodhead each scored one in the 6-0 win.

Bangor hit all three in the last half-hour at Wembley Mill Hill, where Ceryl Jones (2) and Cheryl Foster sent them through 3-0.

Cardiff City had a good 5-1 win against Coventry City, Julie Simkin (2), Helen Aitchison (2) and Carolyn Moysey scoring with Leane Scott hitting a consolation for Coventry.

Reading Royals went out to Birmingham City after three goals in six second-half minutes. Marie Ballard and Donna Hawkins bagged two each, Alison McLeod and Alison Taylor completing a 6-0 win.

Berkhamsted led Barking 4-0 through Steph Belcher (2), Nicky Crump and Debbie Burton but allowed the visitors right back into the game. Sarah Flint's penalty, Julia Setford's free kick and Lorna Estherby brought it back to 4-3 with 15 minutes left, but the hosts held out.

England face Wales

England's U16s will meet Wales, Turkey and host nation the Republic of Ireland in the next stage of the UEFA championships from November 18th. Wales qualified by beating Moldova 6-0, although they lost to hosts Iceland, 2-1.
